TELL AMERICANS MORE ABOUT ENGLISH LAW?

Suggestion By Hunts. Court Chairman

A SUGGESTION THAT AMERICAN AUTHORITIES SHOULD BRIEF
THEIR PERSONNEL ABOUT ENGLISH LAW IN CONNECTION WITH THIRD PARTY INSURANCE WHEN DRIVING VEHICLES, WAS MADE BY MRS. W. E. DRIVER (GHAIRMAN) AT HUNTINGDON BOROUGH COURT ON WEDNESDAY.
Her remarks were prempted after two American Servicemen appeared before the Court pleading guilty to insurance offences. "We feel these men were not properly briefed," she said.

Later on she stated: "It is rather mean for them to be in a stratige country and punished for things they do not understand."

Road, Huntingfor, and was stopped

"IN IGNORANCE."

Staft-Sergt Leon Madison Botts, of USAF Base, Molesworth, was charged with driving a car in Cowper Road, Huntingdon, on September 1st, without being covered by a policy of third party insurance. "You have broken the law so you will have to be punished, but we feel that you did this in ignorance." Mrs. Driver told Botts. He was fined £5 and disqualified for a year.

David Hudson, of the same address, pleaded guilty to permitting Botts to use the car without being covered by insurance. "We feel that you too, have been rather ignorant of this," he was told by Mrs. Driver. "You also have broken the law, but to a much more extent inasmuch as you have drawn him (Botts) into it. You will pay a fine of £10 and your licence will be stopped for one year."

The Court was told how Botts was driving Hudson's car along Cowper Road, Huntington, and was stopped by a constable. He was unable to produce a certificate of insurance, At a later date he took a certificate of insurance to Huntingdon Police Station, but it was found that this only insured the policy holder, who was Hudson.
